FIGHT LAUNCHED TO RAISE RATE PAID FOR GAS BY USERS IN ORANGE

LOS ANGELES, April 27.—Attorneys representing Santa Ana, Orange, Anaheim and Fullerton appeared before Railroad Commissioner Loveland today to oppose the request of the Southern Counties Gas Company for permission to raise gas rates of Orange to a plane one-third higher than present rates.

The company argues that the substitution of natural for artificial gas has lowered the quantity of gas consumed on account of the greater heating power of the former.

Attorneys for the cities presented various grounds for retaining the present rates.

City Attorney G. H. Scott went to Los Angeles this morning to be present at the hearing before the State Railroad Commission in the case in which the Southern Counties Gas Company has asked for a permit to raise the rates for gas charged in the city of Orange. City officials from Orange are attending the hearing.

Santa Ana is not a party to the hearing, but since Orange and Santa Ana receive their gas service from the same pipeline, there is little question but that the gas company expects to ask the commission for permission to raise the rates in Santa Ana, Anaheim and Fullerton. City Attorney Scott says that he does not believe the application for changing Santa Ana rates will be made for ninety days yet, until a law passed by the Legislature and signed by the governor goes into effect.

"I am going to the hearing today on the instructions of the City Trustees," said Scott. "I am going to listen with both ears and get as much information as is possible concerning the claims of the gas company. The company asks that Santa Ana send a representative. That the gas people contemplate taking some action in regard to Santa Ana's rate seems certain."

When the Southern Counties Gas Company entered business in Santa Ana it took over the plant of the Southern California Edison Company, which was supplying artificial gas only. The rate was $1 per 1000 cubic feet. A year and a half ago the gas company laid a main to the Olinda oil wells and brought natural gas here, as well as to Orange, Anaheim and Fullerton, and agreed to furnish it at a rate of 75 cents per 1000 cubic feet. Santa Ana, Anaheim and Fullerton fixed the rate by ordinance. Orange had delegated its rate fixing powers to the State Railroad Commission, which body on petition fixed the rate at 75 cents.

Since that time the gas company has laid another main to the big Standard well on the Emory lease, from which well gas is flowing in such quantities that it is burned on the spot. Orange county is using but a small proportion of the immense flow of gas.

The gas company officials believe that the company should make more money. Several months ago an attempt was made in Santa Ana to get the minimum charge raised from fifty cents a month to $1, and another attempt was made to allow the gas company to add a penalty to a bill if it was not paid by a certain date of the month. Santa Ana denied both petitions.

As the rate making powers of municipalities of the state through the state law will pass to the State Railroad Commission, it will be up to the road commission to say whether or not the rates charged in Santa Ana, Anaheim and Fullerton are equitable. For that reason the investigation and decision in the Orange case is of unusual importance to a large portion of the population of this county.

FOIL BOMB PLOT TO SLAY TURKS

WILLIAM S. ANDREWS (top), justice of the New York State Supreme Court, who presides at the trial of the $50,000 libel suit of William Barnes, Jr., former chairman of the Republican State Committee of New York, against Theodore Roosevelt, was so little interested in the choice of a jury that he read a seed catalogue for information about his spring planting while the lawyers were busy. William M. Ivins (center), chief counsel for Mr. Barnes, is one of the best known lawyers of New York. He is daring and remarkably acute. Whether or not he will succeed in a cross-examination of Mr. Roosevelt is not known. No other person who has attempted the feat has succeeded. William H. Van Benschoten is one of Mr. Roosevelt's lawyers.

SALONIKA, April 27.—Reports of the discovery of a plot to assassinate high German and Turkish officials and start a revolution against the war party are confirmed today by Constantinople advices.

Several attaches of government offices are reported being tortured in an attempt to force a confession.

The eleventh-hour discovery of a huge bomb with clockwork attachment prevented the success of the plot. The bomb was concealed beneath the offices of the war ministry and the clock was set for the hour a meeting of the war council was scheduled.

Minister of War Enver Pasha, German Commander-in-Chief of the Turkish Army Von Der Goltz and German Ambassador Von Sanders would have been present.

INFORMATION AS TO ROADS WILL BE FILED AT C. OF C.

Information regarding roads throughout California, Arizona and Nevada will be kept, revised up-to-date, at the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce by the Automobile Club of Southern California, according to arrangements completed today by E. J. Steinke, of Long Beach, who represents the club at its city, in Orange county and San Pedro.

Steinke stated that the road information would be revised at least twice weekly and often if necessary and that the Chamber of Commerce would be the official headquarters in Santa Ana of the Southern California Automobile Club.

Maps, general data regarding roads, hotels and other information useful for automobilists will be available at all times at the local Chamber of Commerce.

Begin Posting May 1
That the work of posting all the important roads in Orange county would be started about May 1 by the Southern California Automobile Club, was stated this morning by Steinke.

"The club is meeting with a great deal of success in Santa Ana and Orange county generally in the matter of securing memberships," said Steinke.

"With hardly any exceptions everyone we approach realizes that the work of posting signs cannot be done without considerable expense. For this reason and also because motorists realize the great value of accurately and authentically posted roads the club is being well supported in this territory."

"Snow halted the work of posting the transcontinental highway. However, we had already gotten as far as Colorado. As soon as the weather permits the work will be rushed on to Kansas City and then on to New York City."

Good for California
Steinke said that every sign used by the club bears the words, "Auto Club of Southern California." For this reason every sign becomes a living advertisement for California.

In addition to securing members in the club Steinke is soliciting automobile insurance for the auto club he represents.

Following is a list of Santa Ana people belonging to the Auto Club of Southern California:

This Turtle Wore a Beard and His Name Was Turtle of Philadelphia

OAKLAND, Cal., April 27.—Can a turtle play the piano? Constable William G. Allen made a bet that he had one that could, and collected. Joseph Kreig and a few others are "laying for" Allen, however. Kreig remarked that he had a hen that ate nails when Allen mentioned his turtle that played a piano. Bets were made that Allen was a nature faker and all then trekked out to his house.

Seated at the piano was a bearded stranger. At Allen's request he started playing.

"Pay me," said Allen. "This is John C. Turtle of Philadelphia."

TAX COLLECTOR IN DAY GETS $62,444

At 6 o'clock yesterday evening county taxes went delinquent. During the day County Tax Collector Lamb received $62,444.44, most of it in checks at the window. That does not include the mail, which was not worked yesterday. Since the taxpayers with the largest amounts to pay generally send their checks by mail, the $62,444.44 represents a large number of payments.

There were nine people at work in the tax collector's office yesterday, and the big crowd was handled as expeditiously as possible. The taking of taxes stopped at 6 p. m., but the collector and his assistants remained on duty until 10:30 last night clearing away the day's business.

"We will not know for two or three days how much property went delinquent," said Lamb. "We will have to check up on accounts, and when you remember that we have 20,000 accounts and 50,000 pieces of land to look after you can imagine that it will not be done in a minute."

BEET DISEASES ERADICATED BY SIMPLE PLAN OF ROTATION

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 27.—To be rid of the disease known as "crown-gall," the sugar beet farmer has simply to adopt a system of wise crop rotation, planting oats, corn, kafir, milo, or sorghum in the infested field. Even a beet field badly infested with the crown-gall may be freed by the growing of some one of these crops in that field for two or more years before returning to sugar beets.

The above advice is contained in a new professional paper, Bulletin No. 203, of the United States Department of Agriculture, entitled "Field Studies of the Crown-Gall of Sugar Beets." This disease has increased rapidly in recent years and is still on the increase. In many localities where only

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB BACKACHE AND LUMBAGO RIGHT OUT

Rub Pain and Stiffness away with a small bottle of old honest St. Jacobs Oil

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a 25 cent bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, rub a little in your hand and rub it right into the pain or ache, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the ache and pain right out of your back and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica and lame back misery so promptly!

a small number of cases were observed a few years ago there are now thousands of beets affected with the disease every year, especially if a beet crop has been followed by a beet crop for several years in the same field. The disease has been observed in practically all beet-growing states, from Michigan and Ohio to Montana, Idaho, Utah and Colorado.

The disease assumes two kinds of forms which scientists have termed "tumors" and "tuberculosis." A protuberance like a wart appears at any point from the top of the beet to the extreme tip of the root but generally only near the surface of the ground. Observers in former years looked upon the warts or galls as curiosities. Later when the destructive effects of these growths were learned, measures were at once sought for their prevention.

Both kinds of the disease usually manifest themselves at first with a smooth exterior, but if the beet has "tuberculosis," the protuberances finally become very rough, cracked and dark, decay sets in and the beet itself rots. The tumor variety of gall remains quite smooth and does not usually decay; however, it lowers the quality of the roots. The growths do not usually appear on the beet until it is one-quarter to one-half grown; that is, until mid-summer. From that time on they may appear at any time until the beet is harvested.

Mechanical injuries to plants offer favorable seats for the infection, and are usually more numerous near the ends of the rows where they are produced by the horse and cultivator in turning. As far as the size of the beet is concerned, the galls do not seem to have any marked effect upon it, consequently the tonnage or yield per acre does not seem to be particularly affected by the disease. In case it is the tumor type of the disease. If the beet roots have decayed as a result of the tuberculosis infection, the tonnage will, of course be less.

The principal objection to both diseases is that they reduce the sugar content and the purity of the roots. The protuberances themselves are low in purity and therefore detrimental in the milling processes.

LOCAL MAN DELIVERS STEERS FOR '15 RODEO

Thirty-two head of Mexican steers, to be used in the 1915 Rodeo in Los Angeles, May 1 to 9, were delivered yesterday by Tom Doyle from his ranch in the Santiago, where the cattle have been for the past month.

Doyle obtained the steers for the Rodeo committee from Santa Anna, Sonora, Mexico. They are of the rangy, long-horned variety and are said to be well suited to the needs of the small army of ropers and lariat experts that will gather at the Los Angeles Stadium on May 1 to show their prowess. The cowboys and cowgirls will gather from all parts of the West.

A marriage license was issued in Los Angeles yesterday to Eugene Reif, 24, and Imogene H. Tillotson, 23, both of Santa Ana.

MAY CELEBRATION IN LOS ANGELES TO SURPASS ALL PAST

LOS ANGELES, April 27.—A floral pageant planned to surpass anything of the sort ever held in California will be the May celebration of the City of Angels.

Every city in the southern part of the state will contribute its choicest blossoms.

A mighty pageant depicting the history of California from the founding of the first Spanish mission will open the nine days' fiesta. A magnificent electrical pageant representing the coming of the spring flowers will be given at night and in the afternoons, beginning May 1, the greatest display of western sports since the real thing of '49 will be programmed.

The floral parade will be Monday, May 3. The hot house blossoms of millions will be gathered with the modest wild flowers that are in their zenith at this time of the year.

The elaborate entertainment feature is in honor of the thousands of visitors to the California expositions who are invading Los Angeles. The spectacles are under the direction of a general committee of 175 prominent citizens representing the entire county.

SUGAR FACTORY SIGNS TO USE NATURAL GAS

One of the largest contracts ever closed in Southern California for natural gas has been signed up with the Anaheim Sugar Company. President Bain of the Southern Counties Gas Company, the other party to the transaction, states that his company will pipe natural gas to that concern by the middle of this week.

The factory will use more than the cities of Fullerton, Anaheim, Orange and Santa Ana are using daily.

Fuel cost the Anaheim Sugar Company $45,000 the past year and it is said this contract for natural gas will save the company over 25 per cent. during the ensuing year.

This additional gas will come from the great gasser on the Murphy lease which now furnishes the Southern Counties Company gas for several of the cities in Orange county.

GEORGE MEINHARDT

Think of it—25 tons of sugar beets to the acre—the kind shown in this picture—on land that cost $70 per acre. This is one of the reasons why Mr. Meinhardt prefers to farm in Pahvant Valley, although he owns a 20-acre ranch in Southern California. Read his letter.

$70 Per Acre for Land and Perpetual (Gravity) Water Right

Under $1,000,000 gravity irrigation system—Estimated cost of maintenance from 40 to 50 cents per acre per year

The rush to Pahvant Valley is now on! Don't confuse this wonderful land offering with Government land propositions of the "homestead" and "dry-farming" variety. The Pahvant Valley is a rich, settled, proven district—one of the safest and most profitable alfalfa, alfalfa seed, sugar beet, grain, cattle, hog and dairying districts in the West—and our lands are under a $1,000,000 gravity irrigation system which insures a free water supply forever, when your water stock is paid for. The price at which these valuable water rights are sold has been limited by the State of Utah.

One Pahvant Valley farmer clears as high as $6000 per year on alfalfa seed on a 70-acre piece of land. C. T. Bunker says: "My land will soon be worth $250 per acre." O. B. Landon says: "I want to earnestly recommend this country to California farmers." We will be glad to send you our new booklet containing sworn statements by Pahvant Valley farmers. Prof. Lewis A. Merrill, agricultural expert of the Salt Lake Railroad, says this is the most convincing farm land booklet he has ever read. Sworn statements about Pahvant Valley Irrigated Farm Lands by Pahvant Valley Farmers.

No. 1

"On my Pahvant Valley ranch I have produced 25 tons of sugar beets to the acre."

--George Meinhardt

Mr. Meinhardt's Letter Follows:—

Western Securities Company, Los Angeles, Cal.:
Gentlemen:—I came to the Delta district of Pahvant Valley one year ago and bought 50 acres. I still own a 20-acre ranch near Garden Grove in Southern California, which is valued at $20,000, and which I am leasing for $20 an acre. On this California property I produced an average of 10 tons of sugar beets to the acre. The cost of water averaged $250 a year.

On my Pahvant Valley ranch I have produced 25 tons of sugar beets to the acre, on land that cost me $70.00 per acre. I sent my beets to the University of Southern California for analysis. They were tested by Prof. Laird J. Stabler and showed 19.47 sugar and $6.77 purity. The report stated the purity was high and the sugar content above the average. My water cost me (my share of maintenance of water system) less than 40 cents per acre. I received $4.75 per ton for my beets, or $118.75 net per acre. I cultivated only twice with no hoeing at all. I didn't work my land one-third as much as I did in Southern California. I produced 68 bushels of barley to the acre.

As an alfalfa country Pahvant Valley simply can't be beat. As a hog and dairying country I have never seen anything to equal it, and I have covered lots of territory. The climate is healthful and bracing. I never enjoyed better health than I have up here. The domestic water is just like mountain spring water. I believe my land will actually be worth $300 per acre in three years. In California I had to feed four horses the year round to farm my 20 acres, and I had to buy every mouthful of feed. Up here I raise all my feed. My beet crop is therefore clean profit. I raised mangel beets for cattle and hog feed that went 50 tons to the acre. Here's the place for a man with a little money to make good. I am willing to answer any inquiries from interested people. I want to see this grand country develop rapidly. It will appeal to farmers who want the best for the least money.

$70 Per Acre for Land and Perpetual (Gravity) Water Right

Under $1,000,000 gravity irrigation system—Estimated cost of maintenance from 40 to 50 cents per acre per year

The rush to Pahvant Valley is now on! Don't confuse this wonderful land offering with Government land propositions of the "homestead" and "dry-farming" variety. The Pahvant Valley is a rich, settled, proven district—one of the safest and most profitable alfalfa, alfalfa seed, sugar beet, grain, cattle, hog and dairying districts in the West—and our lands are under a $1,000,000 gravity irrigation system which insures a free water supply forever, when your water stock is paid for. The price at which these valuable water rights are sold has been limited by the State of Utah.

One Pahvant Valley farmer clears as high as $6000 per year on alfalfa seed on a 70-acre piece of land. C. T. Bunker says: "My land will soon be worth $250 per acre." O. B. Landon says: "I want to earnestly recommend this country to California farmers." We will be glad to send you our new booklet containing sworn statements by Pahvant Valley farmers. Prof. Lewis A. Merrill, agricultural expert of the Salt Lake Railroad, says this is the most convincing farm land booklet he has ever read. MANY MEASURES PASS IN STATE LEGISLATURE IN HURRY

SACRAMENTO, April 27.—The Assembly approved thirty-eight measures yesterday and the Senate a large number, in the eleventh hour rush to act on as many bills as possible before adjournment on May 6. The Assembly is expected to vote today to limit debate on bills to five minutes, and to hold night sessions, beginning tomorrow.

Senator Carr's bill which would give the State Railroad Commission authority to limit the production of oil in California was reported out, "Do pass," by the Senate committee on oil industries.

Large reductions in the cost of street work to cities is expected by a compromise bill agreed upon by the Senate municipal committee yesterday. Representatives of Los Angeles have been urging a bill to permit the city to do its own street work. Under the compromise any city engineer may bid and the lowest bidder wins. Supporters of the plan claim that paying now costing 18 or 20 cents a square foot can be reduced to about 10 cents.

An attempt to repeal the law which allows railroad companies to collect a 10 per cent penalty for failure to buy a ticket at the company's station, failed in the Senate 24 to 12.

Insurance Rating Bill Fails
The Kehoe Insurance bill, requiring the filing of all fire insurance rates with the insurance commissioner and giving him power to readjust rates on complaint that discrimination prevailed, was defeated in the Senate 24 to 14, after a fight that ran through most of the day. Although Kehoe gave notice of a motion for reconsideration, it is considered that the bill is dead.

The bill removing the property qualification for jurors was passed by the Senate 21 to 15. Its passage was regarded as labor's greatest victory of the session in the upper house. It declares that jurors may be drawn from any list of persons resident in the county for two years. Notice of reconsideration was given.

The Ashley fruit standardization bill, which passed the Assembly last week, passed the Senate 32 to 1.

Three measures affecting reclamation districts were passed by the Assembly. One provides that in the case of subdivision of any tract of land after an assessment has been levied, the proportion of the assessment shall be made according to the benefits derived. Another provides for notice to the land owners when an original assessment is levied. The third requires that all warrants be paid by the trustees without approval by boards of supervisors, except warrants drawn in favor of the trustees and warrants in excess of $50.

TWO CLASSES CAN GO ON BY PAYING THE TEACHERS

Statement Concerning Night School Issued by Board of Education

By paying the salaries of the teachers, the Spanish and French classes of the night school will be allowed to continue. This decision was reached at a meeting of the board of education last night. Other classes may be continued upon the same basis.

Concerning the closing of the night school, the board of education, through Superintendent Cranston, has issued the following statement:

"At a meeting of the Santa Ana Board of Education held April 22, it was decided to discontinue the night school for the reason that a continuation of the night school would involve a reorganization of the classes petitioning to be continued and the work of the reorganized classes would only get nicely started when it would be time to close for this school year."

"At a regular meeting of the board held last evening the petition from the classes in French and Spanish heretofore held at the Intermediate school asked that said classes be continued and the members of the classes would pay the salaries of the teachers. The petition was granted, and permission also granted to other classes wishing to continue their work under similar conditions upon the recommendation of the Board of Education, high school principal and superintendent."

KEEP URIC ACID OUT OF JOINTS

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Eat Less Meat and Take Salts

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly; keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat, but drink plenty of good water.

Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate the uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant effervescent lithia-water drink which helps overcome uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well. Advertisement.

TEACHING BARNES

Press comments the country over show how little men like Mr. Barnes of New York realize the temper of the people, or of the position that men like Mr. Roosevelt have attained. Mr. Barnes still thinks that because he has not robbed a till, he can prove that Roosevelt libeled him when he called him a crook. Mr. Barnes also still thinks that because Mr. Roosevelt could not beat Mr. Wilson and Mr. Taft jointly for the presidency, that the people have lost faith in his honesty or clearness of judgment on political affairs. In these respects the present suit at Syracuse, N. Y., will be very educative to the gentleman whose name sounds like a once popular novel.

We may not always grow in grace, but we certainly grow in knowledge. We may admire power just as much as ever, and bow just as low as ever before wealth, whether earned or stolen. New York may still concede to Mr. Barnes the meed of success in return for his political cleverness, but these things do not count for justification. New York knows that Barnes and Murphy have been co-partners. The state also knows that the effect of this co-partnership has been a joint and several profit in the exercise of power which they had neither been popularly accorded nor praiseworthy exercised. That Barnes is not a pickpocket nor a burglar is no defense to the charge of corruption. Nor is the fact that Roosevelt was defeated for the presidency any ground for demerit to the answer filed by Roosevelt showing that Barnes was part and parcel of the unholy alliance between New York and Albany.

The Roosevelt-Barnes libel suit in New York has been productive of many interesting interchanges, but of nothing more deliciously frank and characteristic than the following colloquy:

Q—"How do you know substantial justice was done?"

A—"Because I did it."

After all, why not? What better guarantee of justice is there than a just man's consciousness that he did it himself? But who besides Theodore Roosevelt would have the frankness to say so, and from whom besides Theodore Roosevelt would it be accepted as even a facetious expression of a serious truth?—Fresno Republican.

AMERICA'S FIRST DUTY

President Wilson in his address at the annual luncheon of a press association pleaded for the strictest American neutrality to the end that we may be fitted some day "to assist in reconstructing the processes of peace."

Our resources are untouched, said the president; we are more and more becoming by force of circumstances the mediating nation of the world in respect of its finance. We must make up our minds what are the best things to do and what are the best ways to do them.

There was much food for thought in what the president said, as there is in anything he says, not only because he is the chief magistrate of the republic, but because he is the present chosen leader of a great political party that, under his direction is shaping the destiny of the country.

It is expected, therefore, that what President Wilson says in his public utterances will square with his actions and the actions of his party, in the practical politics of his administration.

"Our whole duty, for the present at any rate," he declares, "is summed up in this motto, 'America First.' Let us think of America before we think of Europe, in order that America may be fit to be Europe's friend when the day of tested friendship comes."

Does this patriotic advice comport with the Democratic policy of low tariff or no tariff?

Are we thinking of America before we think of Europe when we invite the better-paid industries of America?

Surely President Wilson has no just cause of complaint against us in the matter of friendship for Europe; in truth, there are many of us who think the President's motto has been reversed under Democratic policies—that Europe is first and America the after consideration.

Only recently we have been subjected to a "war tax" of a hundred millions because there was a deficit in our treasury which could not be supplied from the ordinary sources of revenue, which have always been adequately supplied under a Republican protective tariff.

Moreover, President Wilson need not alarm himself over the European possibilities at the close of this war. Europe will take care of herself in a very simple and a very obvious manner.

Every country in Europe now engaged in war will, immediately upon the conclusion of a peace, erect the bars of a high tariff to protect its industries, and they will expect America to buy their products in preference to those of America, because they will be cheaper; and these European products will be readily accessible upon the American market because there will be no restrictive tariff to keep them out.

The consequence will be the ruin of American industry.

Is this the method which President Wilson proposes as to "the best things to do and what are the best ways to do them?"

Is this putting America first?

What is going to happen when the wheels of European industry begin to move again is indicated in the present attitude of Canada toward this country.

We have it on the authority of Mr. Charles M. Pepper, former trade adviser of the United States Department of State, that the increase schedules of the general tariff by Canada is 7 1/2 per cent, while the increase on British preferential rates, which apply to the United Kingdom and the majority of the British colonies, is only 5 per cent.

It would seem that Canada, our next-door neighbor, has also adopted a motto, and that it is "Canada first."

The Canadian tariff strikes directly at California in the matter of agricultural products, and especially at our fruits and vegetables which, coming into the market earlier than similar products further north, would not be in competition with Canadian fruits.

Agricultural products of the Dominion are admitted into the United States under the Democratic tariff free of duty, while similar products from the United States are included in the 7 1/2 per cent increased tariff if they seek a Canadian market.

In this way (and probably in accordance with President Wilson's altruistic economy) the American farmer and orchardist, as well as the American manufacturer are helping to pay the Canadian contribution to the war cost of maintaining the British empire.

And it is quite evident, from what President Wilson told his hearers at that luncheon, he will expect us not only to continue this economic benevolence after the war, but to enlarge it to include all the warring nations.

The American nation is generous to a fault; it has already given ample testimony of its practical and substantial sympathy with the destitute victims of the European war, wholly irrespective of their nationality; and there is not the slightest doubt that after the war its millions of charity will be poured into Europe for the succor of its starving and destitute people.

But we do not propose to give everything to Europe.

We do not propose to shut up our factories and house our plows merely because Europe has destroyed her own industries and must rebuild them with the profit of the American market.

We are willing to send our arms to Europe but we are not willing to part with all our commerce—we will give them our cloak but we shall keep our coat.

And since President Wilson and the Democratic party are not inclined to protect us against the post-bellum effects of the war we shall find someone who will.

We are "easy marks," perhaps, but we are not quite so "easy" as all that.

It will indeed be "America first," as far as protection to American commerce is concerned.—San Diego Tribune.

COMMENT MADE UPON FRENCH REPORT OF 'GERMAN ATROCITIES'

Editor Register: War is a horrible game. In it there are no umpires, Human lives destroyed on the other side and territory gained are the prizes for which the nations play.

The French Commission has issued an official report entitled "German Atrocities in France." The alleged atrocities are merely stated. Proofs, facts, data, to bear out the allegations are not given.

Granted the truth of the statements, is it then so strange that acts of license have been committed by the German army in France? Who will assert that it is possible, when an army numbering millions takes the field, to keep all of its members always under control? Have then, the players in that ghastly game of war, adhered strictly to the rules at all times in the history of the world? When has there been a conflict in which wanton acts of violence have not been committed?

There is a strong possibility that the pamphlet in question is one of the many means employed by the French government to gain sympathy. These efforts to win the favor of the United States and other neutral nations are being made by every power now at war. The only reason that the German government has not yet resorted to a pamphlet telling of atrocities by the French troops in Germany is because Germany has so far succeeded in keeping the French off of German territory. When the time comes (and it is greatly to be doubted if it ever will) when the French invade German soil, documents purporting to set forth acts in violation of international law alleged to have been committed by the French will no doubt be issued by the German government.

It is to be doubted if even the smallest number of statements made by the French government are true. But if they are true it can be said, and without the slightest intention of condoning the acts, that, had the conditions up to this time been reversed—had the French been on German territory, instead of the Germans on French, it would have been just as possible for the German government to issue pamphlets telling of horrors committed by the French.

The French are fighting with the British allies. Russia is one of these. Is the French government not then cognizant of the fact that Russian troops are alleged to have equalled, if not surpassed in ferocity, the deeds alleged to have been done by the Germans? Each of the four times that the Russians have been expelled from Prussia has been preceded, it is said, by the grossest and most barbaric deeds of plunder, pillage and destruction. In justice to the Russians, their acts in Prussia are referred to here as alleged, despite the fact that letters by the score have been received in this country from Prussians who submit proofs. No, France cannot truthfully say that the skirts of her allies are clean. At least, not until she proves beyond the peradventure of a doubt the truth of the statement.

The French government in France, in its report that the Germans in France, seeking excuses for their excesses, said, "What would you? It is war." Whether true or not, the fact remains that the present gigantic Saturnalia of butchery in Europe is war. The nations concerned must gain points, as nations always have done, by fair means or foul—to lose in the struggle is to perish. Sacrifices, of horrifying magnitude, must be made. Villages must be destroyed, cities razed, oceans of human blood must be shed. It is war. To lose is to perish. No ruler of a warring nation ever sent his legions to the front without knowing that it would be impossible for him to guarantee that acts of violation of international law would not be done by individual units of his armies. The ruler is prepared to hear of unlawful behavior by his troops; he is prepared to receive the sad reports which will make the eyes of the world regard his nation with horror. But what can he do? It is war. To lose is to perish. War is a horrible game. HERMAN REUTER.

THIN FOLKS WHO WOULD BE FAT

Increase in Weight Ten Pounds or More

A Physician's Advice

"I'd certainly give most anything to be able to fat up a few pounds and stay that way," declares every excessively thin man or woman. Such a result is not impossible, despite past failures. Thin people are victims of mal-nutrition, a condition which prevents the fatty elements of food from being taken up by the blood as they are when the powers of nutrition are normal. Instead of getting into the blood, all the fat and flesh producing elements stay in the intestines until they pass from the body as waste.

To correct this condition and to produce a healthy normal amount of fat the nutritive processes must be artificially supplied with the power which nature has denied them. This can best be accomplished by eating a Sargol tablet with every meal. Sargol is a scientific combination of six of the best strength-giving fat-producing elements known to the medical profession. Taken with meals, it mixes with the food and turns the sugars and starches into rich, ripe nourishment for the tissues and blood and its rapid effect is remarkable. Reported gains of from ten to twenty-five pounds in a single month are by no means infrequent. Yet its action is perfectly natural and absolutely harmless. Sargol is sold by good druggists everywhere and every package contains a guarantee of weight increase or money back.

Caution:—While Sargol has produced remarkable results in the treatment of nervous indigestion and general stomach disorders, it should not, owing to its remarkable flesh producing effect, be used by those who are not willing to increase their weight ten pounds or more.—Advertisement.

FAREWELL AFFAIR

Diner Party Compliments a Popular New Couple Who Leave For New Home

A merry company of young people joined in a good time at the Barker home on South Broadway last evening, when Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Barker entertained with a farewell dinner party in honor of their son, Charles Barker, and his winsome little wife, who left today via automobile for their new home at Milford Valley, Utah.

A basket of Lady Washington geraniums of pink and white, centered the pretty table where an appetizing three-course dinner was enjoyed. During the last course a beautiful birthday cake, decorated with twinkling candles was placed before Mrs. Charles Barker, and amidst showers of good wishes and birthday congratulations, she extinguished the pretty candles and sliced the delicious birthday trophy, which was served with ice cream and crushed strawberries.

The after-dinner hours were pleasantly whiled away with music and conversation and many regrets were expressed at the departure of the guests, for this young couple are very popular with a host of Santa Ana friends by whom they will be greatly missed.

Those present at the farewell affair of last evening were the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barker, Misses Helen Crose, Josephine McCrary, Merle Obar and Miss Grace Downing of Orange; Messrs. Arthur Pease, Stewart Smith, Fay Wright and Sam Barker.

INTERESTING TRIP

O. M. Robbins Finds Week a Short Time In Which to See Exposition

O. M. Robbins, who returned Sunday from a week's stay in San Francisco, says that such a short time is totally inadequate to see one-half of the great exposition and although he enjoyed his trip immensely, Mr. Robbins is of the opinion that one could easily spend a month in seeing new and beautiful exhibits.

Part of his time was spent in attending the Masonic Grand Council and Grand Chapter in session April 19 to 21, and the remaining time was devoted to viewing as many of the exhibits as could be crowded into this short space of time.

Mr. Robbins considers the Canadian exhibit as the best staged, the beaver dam, where he watched these busy animals at their work, being intensely interesting. Another wonderful scene was an apple orchard so exquisitely painted that it was difficult to distinguish the mound of real apples in the foreground from the continuation of the scene in the painted background.

The United States fisheries exhibit, showing first the variety of eggs, then the fishes in all stages of incubation from those three-fourths of an inch in length to the full grown fish, some of which are so large as to require separate tanks, claimed much attention.

The Japanese display of exquisite paintings and specimens of embroidery is among the many wonderful exhibits which would be utterly impossible to describe with full justice.

The fraternal parade given last Thursday was one interesting feature of Mr. Robbins' trip. The various fraternal orders were well represented in various floats, in a parade that was exceedingly beautiful. Parades of great variety are given every day and are one of the chief attractions of the fair.

The lighting system also is a remarkable asset of the exposition grounds. The electric globes are concealed, making the mellow illumination in the evening particularly beautiful.

Though many have expressed the surprise that tourists would be charged exorbitant prices at hotels and restaurants, Mr. Robbins finds no such condition. Good hotels and restaurants which serve the public at very reasonable terms are easily located.

Sarah A. Rounds Tent met yesterday afternoon with a good attendance of members and veterans. Two new members were "mustered in" which made the meeting a very happy occasion.

The president, Mrs. George S. Smith, presented the Tent with a beautiful hand-made silk flag, in memory of her father, Comrade H. P. Jones; who was a soldier in Company A, 100th Illinois Volunteers.

Announcements were made of the national convention at Washington, D. C., and also the department convention in San Jose which convenes May 1 to 15, and which seven representatives from Sarah A. Rounds Tent are expected to attend.

COCOANUT OIL FINE FOR WASHING HAIR

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, the less soap you use the better.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulisified coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two tea-spoonsful will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulisified coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

PRETTY AFFAIR

Bride Entertains Friends Who Decorated Church For Wedding

One of the pretty informal affairs, which herald the coming of May Day, occurred Saturday afternoon at the lovely home of Mrs. John Sauters of Yorba avenue, Tustin, when she entertained the friends who assisted in making the First Presbyterian church so beautiful for her wedding, last night. Interior views of the church and its decorations were given to each guest, as souvenirs of this happy occasion.

The young ladies had brought their needlework and all chatted merrily over their sewing, a clever guessing game also adding to their entertainment.

Late in the afternoon the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. A. R. Rowley, and little Miss Laurene Sauters, served a dainty five o'clock tea. A basket of fragrant Cecil Bruner roses, tied with a fluffy bow of pink tulle, centered the prettily-appointed table, while asparagus fern and streamers of pink tulle, which had been used in the eventful wedding decorations, decorated the chandeliers above the dining table. Suggestive of approaching May Day were the tiny, crocheted baskets tied with rosy tulle, and the place cards bearing a maiden's face embedded in a pink rose bud. The tints of the pretty color motif were also reproduced in the dainty vases.

Mr. Sauters and Burton Rowley arrived in time for refreshments and other members of the merry circle included Mrs. Grace Rankin, Misses Bessie Lewis, Bessie and Adeline Hill, Robbie Jones, Freda Moesser, Mary Shrewsbury, Grace Greathouse and the hostess, Mrs. John Sauters.

RED LETTER DAY

Rousing Celebration Marks Ninety-Sixth Anniversary of I. O. O. F. Lodge

Huntington Beach presented a gala scene yesterday, when representatives from the Odd Fellow lodges in Orange county joined in celebrating the ninety-sixth anniversary of the founding of the order.

The subordinate orchestra furnished splendid music during the lively day and visitors were heartily welcomed by E. E. Finch of Huntington Beach. In response to his genial address of welcome, City Attorney G. H. Scott voiced the appreciation of the guests who were enjoying the hospitality of the Huntington Beach lodge.

During the morning's program, Mrs. John Hawley, of Sycamore lodge, Santa Ana, sang a lovely solo and Mrs. George W. Ford of Torosa gave an excellent reading.

Mrs. J. J. Pyle of Westminster added a reading to the enjoyable program and representatives from Orange and Fullerton lodges also shared in making this part of the entertainment a success.

The visiting lodge members were royally treated to a fish barbecue, at noon, and after the bountiful spread an exciting game of baseball was witnessed between the Huntington Beach and Orange Odd fellows. The game ended in victory for Huntington Beach and this interesting feature closed the pleasant celebration which will ever be remembered as a red letter day in the I. O. O. F. calendar.

Not Very Steady

A farm hand had worked in the field from dawn till darkness, doing the chores by lantern light. "I'm going to quit," he said to the farmer at the end of the month. "You promised me a steady job."

"Well, haven't you got one?" was the astonished reply.

"No," said the man, "there are three or four hours every night that I don't have a thing to do, and fool my time away sleeping."—National Monthly.

WM. HEFFRON IS KILLED; SHOCK ELECTRICITY

Former Santa Ana Dead at Porterville, Where He Had Been Ranching

Coming in contact with a high power line carrying 6000 volts, William Heffron, formerly of Santa Ana, was killed on a ranch near Porterville last Friday.

Heffron was well known here. For about ten years he was employed by J. T. Raitt, and was Raitt's foreman when Raitt owned the Santa Ana Jersey Farm Dairy. When Raitt went to Porterville about three years ago, Heffron and his wife, whom he married here, went with him. Heffron was foreman on Raitt's ranch until Raitt returned to Santa Ana a few months ago. Heffron remained at Porterville as a renter of half of the ranch that Raitt had owned.

Heffron was at work moving a transformer on a pole on a ranch adjoining his when he was electrocuted. He fell to the ground, a distance of a few feet, and lived but a few minutes.

Heffron was 30 years old. He came to Santa Ana from Wisconsin. He left a wife and no children.

On receiving a telegram telling of Mr. Heffron's death, Mrs. Raitt went to Porterville last Saturday.

For Rent—Piano, $4.50 a month. Chandler's, 111 W. Fourth St.

AN EXCELLENT RECIPE FOR MAKING GOOD DIVINITY FUDGE

Good divinity fudge, or any kind of candy for that matter, requires strict attention to directions as to quantities and methods. Below is given one of the best recipes known for making this popular confection.

"Divinity Fudge"—2 cups sugar, 3/4 cup Karo, 1/4 cup water, 2 eggs (whites only), 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1/2 cup chopped nut meats, 1/2 pound dates, stoned and cut fine. Cook sugar, Karo and water till crisp when tried in cold water. Beat the whites of the eggs in a large bowl, and pour the syrup slowly onto them, beating the whole until it begins to harden. Add the vanilla, nuts and dates. Spread quite thick on a shallow buttered tin. When cool, cut in large squares.

Excellent recipes for making Caramels, Walnut Caramels, Cream Caramels, Chocolates Caramels, Peppermint Candy, Taffy, Yellow Jack, Cream Drops, Peanut Wafers, Coconut Candy, Nougat, and many other sweets too numerous to mention, will be found in a little booklet issued by the manufacturer of Karo Syrup, which can be obtained free of charge at all modern grocers. Ask for it.—Advertisement.

Bring Back Its Gloss, Lustre, Charm and Get Rid of Dandruff

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine. It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance; freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp. Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower; destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

It you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.—Advertisement.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Advances in the potato market were the principal feature of the Monday morning trade. Idaho Russet spuds jumped to $2.45 a hundred, and the market on these has not reached the top as yet. Russets went to $1.90, while Longspuds are now holding at $2.50 a hundred. The market is bare of all Salinas stock, as well as of river Burbanks, only an occasional car of these coming in, and the quality being a trifle poor. Wisconsin Burbanks are supplying a good part of the demand, and are bringing $2 for the best. Receipts of potatoes over Sunday were heavier than usual, 5762 sacks. Local spuds are a little slow in coming in, and the price on new stock is holding up well, partly on account of distant shipments of new stock.

The market was flooded with strawberries. Receipts were the heaviest of the season, and fine berries sold as low as 3 cents. Raspberries made their initial bow for the season, selling at 20 cents a basket, while good blackberries brought up to 15 cents. Citrus fruit was firm and active all through the list. Cherry Receipts totaled about twenty boxes of small size, each carrying above five pounds of fruit, which brought the wholesale quotation of $2.

There were no changes on the market of staples. Egg receipts were 792 cases. Trading was active, and prices here as well as in the north were unchanged.

Butter arrivals were 58,820 pounds.

THIS SORT OF BANK PAYS NO INTEREST!

SOME folks are still so out of date—or, to put it more frankly, so FOOLISH—as to hide their savings in an old teapot, or an old stocking, or under the carpet, or in some other secret place. They seem to think a bank is MYSTERIOUS or COMPLEX or UNSAFE. This sort of notion is, of course, way BEHIND THE TIMES. Deposits in this bank are SAFE, and they GROW. CANADIANS CAPTURE TOWN ONLY TO LOSE IT

LONDON, April 27.—Early reports received here from Flanders say a battle is continuing with the utmost intensity, but tonight dispatches intimate there is a general lull the entire length of the line.

It is believed both sides are redistributing their forces and reinforcing their present lines.

It is believed today that the general rejoicing here late yesterday over the reported capture by the Canadians of the village of St. Julian was premature.

A war office statement says the British do not hold St. Julian, that their lines have been forced south of there on account of tremendous pressure by the Germans.

The Canadians actually captured the town but were forced to withdraw because they were unable to maintain the position without appalling losses.

BRITISH CLAIMED TO BE HOLDING THEIR OWN

LONDON, April 27.—That the allies' lines have been reinforced and consolidated and that the French, British and Belgian forces in Flanders are not only holding their own against the terrific German drive, but have resumed offensive at many points, re-taking lost ground, is indicated in an official statement from the Paris, Berlin and London war offices.

It is believed officially that the most terrific fighting of the war is probable within the next fortnight.

The Canadians and British hold the crucial point at the center of Flanders. The Germans are apparently concentrating there.

AMBASSADORS ARE CALLED TO ROME CONFERENCE

DANDRUFFY HEADS BECOME HAIRLESS

Scalp Dries—Chokes out the Hair And Prevents its Growth.

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will be silky, fluffy, lustrous, soft and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

FUMIGATOR SAYS TESTIMONY OF BOYS FALSE

A Laswell on Stand Today In Defense; Youths Say He Engineered Thefts

Today A. Laswell, fumigator, of Orange, faced a jury and denied that he had planned the burglary of the Foothill Valencia Growers' packing house. He denied that he had suggested to Farley Sutton, Willard Shadel and Vernon Thompson that they steal cyanide from the packing house. He denied having bought any cyanide from them.

He denied having suggested or planned Zenus Watson's theft of cyanide from a fumigating outfit. He said that he did buy one case and thirty pounds of cyanide from Watson, but he said he paid $50 for it instead of $40, as testified by Watson.

Today the real fight for Laswell is being made by his attorneys, H. C. Head and W. M. Brown. Yesterday Deputies Koepsel and Eden of the district attorney's office, tied their case around Laswell, and today the defense is doing its best to tear out the last enclings.

The four principal witnesses against Laswell were Shadel, Thompson and Sutton. Sutton said that he made arrangements with Laswell, who told him where the cyanide was. They said they delivered two cases of cyanide to Laswell and were paid for them.

This morning Laswell's attorneys started their fight out by showing that the four young men concerned in the cyanide cases had pleaded guilty to a felony. The purpose evidently was to attack their testimony. An attempt was made to get Edmund Finley to testify that Shadel and Thompson had told him that it was necessary for them to "stick together" to avoid going to the penitentiary. Finley was not allowed to testify, owing to the fact that the time of the conversation alleged was not clearly fixed.

Laswell went on the stand about 11:30 o'clock. He produced a contract under which he could and did buy cyanide from Braun Company for 22 1/2 cents a pound.

"The purpose of introducing this contract," said Attorney Head, "is to show that Laswell could buy cyanide for $44.50 a case. The boys said he offered to pay them $35 to $40 a case. They said cyanide was worth 26 cents a pound."

"Did you buy any cyanide from Watson?" asked Head.

"Yes," answered Laswell. "I paid him 22 1/2 cents a pound for a case and thirty pounds. My wife gave him $10 and a check for $40." The canceled check was produced. Watson had said he received only a $40 check.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT FLOUR OR LIME? UP TO JUSTICE COX TO ANSWER

Santa Ana Man Goes to Long Beach Prepared to Demonstrate Reply

Justice Cox is not a chemist, but he went to Long Beach today prepared to stand up and be sworn to say that what he brushed off of a man's coat was flour, not lime. Sheriff Jackson went with the Santa Ana justice, and it is more than likely that the sheriff will be called on also to state what he knows about the material that was on the coat of a man named Colder.

This Colder was arrested as he was carrying a big sack of plunder along a street at Sunset Beach. Later it developed that the plunder was stolen from a house across the line in Los Angeles county, and Colder was taken to Long Beach for his preliminary.

When Colder was brought to Santa Ana he was taken by the sheriff into Justice Cox's office. Among articles seized and found in the sack that Colder was carrying was part of a sack of flour.

The sheriff observed some white powdery stuff on Colder's coat. The justice brushed the coat with his hand and the white material brushed out in a small cloud.

"That's flour," said the judge.

"Yes, it is flour," said Jackson.

"No, it is lime," declared Colder.

So the justice and sheriff are to testify today as to what it was that they brushed off of Colder's coat. Justice Cox is going prepared to demonstrate. He has a small bottle of flour, and he also has a small bottle of lime. He says that flour will brush off readily, while lime sticks to the cloth. He will swear positively that what he brushed off Colder's coat did not look like lime, act like lime and wasn't lime.

Justice Armor Here

While Justice Cox is away, Justice Samuel Armor of Orange is sitting in the local township court. Two matters were set for hearing today, but both were continued. Joseph Lynch was up to plead on a charge of battery brought by his wife. A demurrer was put in, and the case had to go over. It was set for April 30.

The preliminary examination of Ralph Stocking, charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor, was continued to May 10, at the request of W. F. Menton, representing Attorney Clyde Bishop, who is Stocking's attorney. Menton said that Bishop is in Sacramento.

Traffic Charges

Officer Pond swore to two complaints, one charging Drennen Kraich with cutting a corner at Third and Main and one charging D. H. Elliott, a motorcyclist, with running his machine with the muffler open.

WILD CAT LURE SENDS CALL TO CREDULOUS

SACRAMENTO, April 27.—That all of the wild cats are not yet dead or that they believe there are still some very credulous people in the state of California is indicated by an advertisement published in this state by an Oklahoma oil company, which has just been brought to the attention of the state corporation department.

The public is invited to "buy oil stock in a $61,000,000 company just organized; ground floor proposition; 100 per cent dividends 90 days possible; 20 wells at once; quick action on your money; limited number of shares at 2 cents per share; $10 buys $500 par value stock; big advance in stock soon; selling fast; remit now, write for free information; dividends declared soon, etc."

The commissioner of corporations has called the company's attention to the fact that it has violated the Blue Sky Law of California in offering and advertising its shares for sale without first having obtained a permit and is calling upon it to make immediate representation in reference to such violation.
